

Curriculum vitae

Rebecca Moore

Archaeologist

Rebecca is an archaeologist with consulting and field experience in NSW and Tasmania. She has worked with industry leaders in both historic and Aboriginal archaeology and heritage.

Rebecca's key skills are in excavation and field survey techniques, artefact management, public communication and community engagement.

Fields of Competence

- Historic heritage survey and assessment
- Aboriginal archaeological excavation
- Historic heritage archaeological excavation
- Historic heritage community consultation and public programmes.
- Aboriginal and historic heritage artefact management

Education

- Bachelor of Arts Honours Class 1 Archaeology (Sydney University) 2010

Professional Affiliations

- Member of Australian Archaeological Association
- Member of Australasian Society for Historical Archaeology
- Member of the NSW National Archaeology Week organising committee

Training

- Senior first aid- current
- Nationally recognised OH&S construction induction certificate – current

Curriculum vitae

Rebecca Moore

---

Archaeologist

Key Projects

Archaeological Excavation

Rebecca has worked on a number of historic and Aboriginal archaeological excavations and surveys. This work has involved providing field assistance, site supervision and providing technical expertise. Project examples include;

- Excavation, analysis, Aboriginal archaeology assessment; Penrith Lakes Scheme, 2011.
- Aboriginal and historical site survey. Gunnedah with archaeologist Sue Hudson, 2011.
- Excavation, site supervision, Oatlands Gaol and Mill, Southern Midlands Council Tasmania, 2011.
- Excavation, on site artefact management Barangaroo Development Sydney, Casey and Lowe Pty Ltd in association with Bovis Lend Lease, 2011.
- Artefact processing Carlton and United Brewery in association with Godden Mackay Logan Heritage Consultants, 2010.
- Excavation, artefact processing Cumberland and Gloucester Streets Sydney in association with Godden Mackay Logan Heritage Consultants, 2008.

Heritage projects

Rebecca has a strong involvement in the heritage sector maintaining contacts with both state and non government organisations through volunteer work;

- Public programme 'Dig It' Sydney Observatory, National Archaeology Week 2011.
  - Site recording, report writing and oral history investigation Little Wheeny Creek Mill, Kurrajong- Comleroy Historical Society 2009.
  - Excavation, Rouse Hill House, Historic Houses Trust 2008.
  - Reception, heritage tour guiding, children's programmes Old Government House Parramatta, National Trust 2006 – 2010.
-